Easter

9th of April

World down syndrome day is celebrated on the 21st of March.

On this day people are more sensitive to children and adults with Down Syndrome.

These people are very similar to us.

We celebrate WDSD wearing two different colourful socks.

They have only one chromosome more than we have.

We have 46 chromosomes and they have 47 chromosomes.

Down syndrome appears naturally- there is no known cause.

People with Down syndrome usually have intellectual or physical disability and need some special medical support. But some of them function better than others.

There is a model with Down syndrome, in 2022nd the first student with DS finished the Evergreen State College in Washington.

Do you know..?

Holy week

Holy week is one of the best times at the year.

In that time at 33th year of first century Jesus Christ died, redeemed for our sins and he went to heaven. The best time of Holy week is Paschal Triduum, that is three the most important days of easter. Paschal Triduum is Maundy Thursday, Great Friday and Holy Saturday.

First day of Holy Week is Palm Sunday. It is Saint day which is always 7 days after Easter Sunday. It was a day when almost 2000 years ago Jesus Christ arrived to the Jerozolima on the donkey. Persons in that town greeted him with palms.

And the last day of Holy week is Easter!!! It's day of fun because Jesus Christ at night is risen.

When his mother Maria went to his grave she doesn't stood him there. He is risen during night from Holy Saturday to Easter. Everyone over there be happy. We are eating Easter breakfast and it's good to go after that to the church. In the church the greatest sacrament is on his place, red, eternal lamp is lit and we have to go to the Saint communion. It is beautiful to spend this time with family.
After this day is 50 days of fun. But...
after, after Easter day
is...Wet Monday!!!
And a lot of fun:-)

And how about your spending Easter time??? ↓ ↓ ↓

- 1. I am at my home every day of Triduum Paschal.
- 2. I'm going to the church every day of Holy week.
- 3. I am making dinner for all my family members.
- 4. I am making easter eggs and I am playing water games

Happy
Easter Day

Easter EGG

Easter eggs are a symbol of new life and a lamb is associated with the feast of passover because a lamb was sacrificed.

Wet Monday

Śmingus Dyngus, also known as lany poniedziałek (Wet Monday), is a Polish Easter Monday tradition which, involves people throwing of water at each other.

The most commonly known story is on Easter Monday, boys in the countryside would be allowed to drench girls with water. If you don't wake up early on Wet Monday, you will be awoken by having water poured on you. This happens all over the country in family homes, universities and flats.

Many Polish girls want to hide away that day for fear of being soaked and embarrassed in public.

But generally it is a day that is well-known and celebrated all over Poland and in Polish communities overseas. Although it sounds terrible, it was usually meant as a way to show their affection.

Water fight

Today, as a the hybrid Śmingus-Dyngus, this relatively harmless set of rituals has turned into a fullblown national water fight. It no longer only involves boys and girls. It can involve anyone. That's right-you may be just an innocent passer-by, but you, too, could be soaked from head to toe. Śmingus-Dyngus has become a free-for-all: water guns, water bottles, water balloons from above- you never know where the water is going to come from! In some cases, even fire trucks have been known to join in the festivities.
